Great and Useful Invention.

No more Mortality for want of Water.
Sure wealth to Estancieros
By the Modern Apparatus.

Being notorious the immense injury occasioned by the scarcity of water during the long (seeas) that afflict the camps of Buenos Ayres, I have determined to dispose of the Estancias one an Apparatus at once simple and infallible for procuring as much water as they may require.

120 Bordaneses per hour (it seems fabulous) is procured with my apparatus, without fear of at any time its getting out of order.

This machine is worked by one horse and in one day's work can give 144 Bordaneses for 100 negs, sufficient water for 20,000 head of cattle.

By these figures can be calculated the immense advantages gained by its use.

Another advantange is the facility of putting it together and taking it to pieces, so as to facilitate transport it to any place where it may be necessary to use it, either for watering purposes or others.

GREAT MODIFICATION.

I have made an improvement in my Apparatus, applying a new system which reduces the necessary force two thirds, giving it at the same time more rapidity.

Those interested can see it at Calle Moreno, 30, (Montevideo), Rosario, (Paris).

One sole inspection of the Apparatus will prove to them the superiority of it over any other. ROBERT.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, 1864.

LATEST FROM EUROPE

ARRIVAL OF THE MERSEY

Yesterday morning the royal mail-steamer Mersey, Captain R. Curlewis, arrived in port, bringing news of great importance from Europe.

In England Parliament had been opened by Special Commission. The Marquis of Sligo, wearing the uniform of the Royal Irish London Volunteers, moved the Address in the House of Lords; and Lord A. Grosvenor, who wore the uniform of the Cheshire Yeomanry, in the House of Commons. Lord Derby, in commenting upon the Queen's speech, paid a most graceful compliment to the Queen and the Prince of Wales, but afterwards delivered a most powerful invective against the milk-and-water administration of the present Government. And in the plainest manner possible stated that the British empire was in danger. Mr. Whiteside, in the House of Commons, in his usual sarcastic and eloquent style attacked the Ministers for not mentioning anything about Ireland in the Queen's speech. It is quite evident that the Tories are determined to do their best at this session to turn Lord Russelism out.

The invasion of Schleswig-Holstein, by Prussia and Austria, had created the profoundest sensation on the London Stock Exchange. Earl Grey, and nearly all the leading men of England, declared that war between England, and Prussia and Austria, is inevitable.

The Palmerston divorce case is over. Mr. O'Kane having failed to prove anything when called on so to do.

The new Lord Mayor of Dublin had given a magnificent banquet. Lord Carlisle made an eloquent speech on the present state of Ireland.

The Galway contested-seat case had a thrilling sensation in Oxford. The 'Times' devotes a leader to it, and throws all the blame on a certain Mr. Ugarte, and the indiscreet use of paraffin oil.

The Flowery Land case had terminated, resulting in the conviction of seven of the criminals for murder, all of whom have been sentenced to be hanged.

The Argentine Central Railway Company had not yet been introduced on the Stock Exchange, in London, at though the rate of interest had fallen to 6¾ per cent, but the Bank rate had not been reduced.

Buenos Ayres Bonds, 6 per cent., were sold at 80, which shows a rather serious fall: they seem, however, to have gone up to 90 the day before the leaving of the packet.

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.

"MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

"We are commanded to assure you that her Majesty has great satisfaction in resuming again to the advice and assistance of her Parliament.

"Her Majesty is confident that you will share her feeling of gratitude to the Almighty God on account of the Princess of Wales having given birth to a son; an event which has called forth from her faithful people renewed demonstrations of devoted loyalty and attachement to her person and family.

"The state of affairs on the continent of Europe has been the cause of great anxiety in her Majesty. The death of the late King of Denmark brought into immediate application the stipulations of the treaty of May, 1852, concluded by her Majesty, the Emperor of Austria, the Emperor of the French, the King of Prussia, the Emperor of Russia, the King of Sweden, and afterwards acceded to by the King of Norway, the King of Saxony, the King of Wirtemburg, the King of the Belgians, the King of the Netherlands, the Queen of Spain, the King of Portugal, and the King of Italy.

"That treaty declared that it is conclusive as to the preservation of the balance of Powers, and of the peace of Europe, that the integrity of the Danish monarchy should be maintained, and that the several territories which have hitherto been under the sway of the King of Denmark should continue so to remain; and for this purpose it was agreed that upon the death of the late King and of his uncle Prince Frederick without issue, his present Majesty King Christian IX. should be acknowledged as succeeding to all the dominions then united under the sceptre of his Majesty the King of Denmark.

"HER Majesty actuated by the same desire to preserve the peace of Europe, which was one of the declared objects of all the Powers who were parties to that treaty, has been unremitted in her endeavours to bring about a peaceful settlement of the differences which on this matter have arisen between Germany and Denmark, and to ward off the dangers which might follow from a beginning of warfare in the North of Europe; and Her Majesty will continue her efforts in the interest of peace.

"The grievous murders and cruel assaults committed in Japan upon subjects of Her Majesty rendered it necessary that demands should be made upon the Japanese Government, and upon the Daimio by whose retainers some of those outrages were committed.

"The Government of the Tycoon complied with the demand made upon them by her Majesty's Government, and full satisfaction having been made, the friendly relations between the two Government have continued unbroken. But the Daimio of Satsuma refused to comply with the just and moderate demands which were made upon him.

"His refusal rendered measures of coercion necessary, and Her Majesty regrets that while those measures have brought this Prince to an agreement to compliance with her demands, the destruction of a considerable portion of the town of Kagoshima.

"Papers on this subject will be laid before you.

"The insurrection which broke out last year among some portion of the native inhabitants of New Zealand has unfortunately continues, but there is reason to hope that it will, before long, be put down.

"Her Majesty commands us to inform you that she has concluded a treaty with the Emperor of Austria, the Emperor of the French, the King of Prussia, and the Emperor of Russia, by which her Majesty consents to give up the protectorate of the Ionian Islands; and also agrees to the annexation of those islands to the kingdom of Greece. This treaty shall be laid before you. Her Majesty is also negotiating a treaty with the King of the Hellenes for regulating the arrangements connected with the union of the Ionian Islands with the kingdom of Greece.

"GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

"Her Majesty has desired the estimates for the current year to be laid before you. They have been prepared with every attention to economy, and with a due regard to the efficiency of the public service.

"MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

"Her Majesty commands us to inform you that the condition of the country is, on the whole, satisfactory. The revenue has been collected to a large amount; the commerce of the United Kingdom is increasing; and while the distress in the cotton manufacturing districts has been in some degree lessened, there is reason to look forward to an increased supply of cotton from various countries which must either lessen or entirely furnished our manufacturers with this material for their industry.

"HER Majesty has directed that a commission shall be issued for the purpose of revising the various forms of subscription and declaration required to be made by the clergy of the established Church. A copy of that commission will be laid before you.

"Various measures of public useful ness will be laid before your consideration.

"HER Majesty commits, with confidence the great interests of the country to your wisdom and care; and she fervently prays that the blessings of Almighty God may attend your deliberations and prosper your counsels for the advancement of the welfare and happiness of her loyal and faithful people."

LATEST INTELLIGENCE.

INVASION OF SCHLESWIG.

Schleswig, Feb. 8th.

The Austrian head-quarters are to-day at Frorup and Oversee.

The Prussian head-quarters are at Glüksburg.

The Austrians are pursuing the enemy in a northerly direction, and the Prussian Guards in a westerly direction.

The severe engagement which took place yesterday near Idstedt between the Austrian and Prussian troops and the Danes resulted in a victory of the former.

The King has set out for Copenhagen.

In the engagement near Oversee and the road to Flensburg there were many killed and wounded.

The Austrian Regiment of the King of the Belgians alone lost 17 officers and 500 rank and file.

Schleswig, Feb. 8.

It was the intention of the Danish Commander before evacuating Schleswig to blow up the Castle of Gottorp and set fire to the magazines. Having received orders to spare the King's birthplace, neither was carried into execution.

The number of guns in position left behind by the Danes is stated to be 120.

About noon to-day the Austrians Blumenfeld, of Fleckbye, was brought in between the two armies engaging, with his arms tied to the saddle. He led a Prussian detachment against a column of Austrians, upon pretext that they were Danes, in consequence of which they fired into one another with fatal results. A complete plan of the Austro-Prussian position was found upon him, which led to the supposition that he was in communication with a regular correspondent.

Blauenfeld will be shot as a traitor to-morrow.

Persons arrived here from the North state that the Austrians have occupied Flensburg.

The Prussians have advanced leaving Flensburg on the left.

Wounded soldiers have been brought here from the battle,field at Idstedt.

The Austrians have attacked the Danish positions before Flensburg, while the Prussians are cutting off the enemy on the right.

The Danes are retreating.

Large quantities of booty and many prisoners have fallen into the hands of the allies.

Fighting has taken place in the streets of North Flensburg, and a desperate struggle is now going on at Bau and Kupfermühle.

Copenhagen, Feb. 7.

The Danish Commander-in-chief, General de Meza, has left Duppel after it have been recalled, General de Luttichau has been temporarily intrusted with the command of the army.

Notwithstanding it being Sunday, both Chambers of the Rigsdag held a public sitting today.

The following is the Danish account of their retreat :—

"Overcome by the fatigue occasioned by five days' constant duty, the Danish troops have on the night of the 5th retreated to Düppel, on reaching which place the cavalry took a northerly direction, the enemy being continually in pursuit.

"Several engagements have taken place. The Danish losses are considerable.

"The German troops in Schleswig have everywhere participated in the demonstrations in favour of the Prince of Augustenburg.

"The excitement in Copenhagen still continues.

"At today's extraordinary sitting of the Rigsdag the President of the Council said that the King was not instrumental in the retreat of the army, that the responsibility of the Commander-in-Chief were inexplicable, and that he had therefore been recalled.

Hamburg Feb. 8.

Officers report that the Prussians have marched upon Duppel from Holnis.

They are said to have carried the intrenchments before Düppel, held by a small Danish force, and to have thrown forward their main body to Apenrade, in order to cut off the retreat of the Danes into Jutland.

The roads were blocked with carnage which the exhausted horses were unable to drag further.

The Danish army is reported to be in a state of complete dissolution.

Rumored Excitement at Copenhagen.

Paris, Feb. 8.

The 'Patrie' of this evening publishes, under express reserve, a report that a revolution had broken out in Copenhagen, and that the King of Sweden has been proclaimed in that city.

The report goes to state that King Christian has embarked for England.

'La France' of this evening says :—

"Great excitement is felt at Copenhagen among the maritime population and the workmen at the arsenal, all of whom demand to be led to battle. A powerful squadron is being fitted out. Two more regiments have left Copenhagen for the island of Alsen, to support the movements of the Danish army."

The Paris correspondent of a telegram, dated Copenhagen, Feb. 7, evening :—

"Demonstrations have been made before the palace of the King to-day, demanding explanations of the order given to the Danish troops to retire from the Dannewerk. The Minister of War has declared that he had nothing to do with this order."

THE SITUATION

The 'New York Herald,' of the 27th January, gives the following resume of the situation of affairs at that date :—

General Butler telegraphed to the Secretary of War from Fortress Monroe yesterday that General Graham made a successful raid, with three transports, up the Rappahannock, Corbett at a point on the peninsula below Fort Powhattan, captured 22 of the enemy, 7 of the signal corps, 20 negroes, 5 horses, together with large quantities of tobacco, oats, corn, and pork, the latter three items of which were destroyed.

A detachment of colored troops went up East River, from Fortress Monroe, on gunboats the other day, and brought away three families of white people, of 15 in number, with 6 contrabands, all of whom arrived on the Yorktown mailboat, together with several other refugees from Richmond. Refugees are coming into our lines at the fortress daily, both by way of Yorktown and Norfolk.

The defection in the Southern army appears to be almost universal. Rebel deserters, to the number of 30, came into the lines of the Potomac army within the past two days. It is said that the feeling on the other side of the Rapidan on the 1st inst. was such as to before noticed, was caused by a regiment refusing to march, and by the officers attempting to force them to do so.

Jefferson Davis is expected to arrive at Richmond from the South to-morrow.

Persons arrived here from the North state that the Austrians have occupied Flensburg.

The Prussians have advanced, leaving Flensburg on the left.

Wounded soldiers have been brought here from the battle,field at Idstedt.

The Austrians have attacked the Danish positions before Flensburg, while the Prussians are cutting off the enemy on the right.

The Danes are retreating.

Large quantities of booty and many prisoners have fallen into the hands of the allies.

Fighting has taken place in the streets of North Flensburg, and a desperate struggle is now going on at Bau and Kupfermühle.

MEXICO.

Vienna, Jan. 23.

The acceptance of the Imperial Crown of Mexico by the Archduke Ferdinand Maximilian is now an irrevocable fact. His Imperial Highness will return to-morrow to Trieste to make his final preparations for the journey, and will return to Vienna in about a fortnight. A second Mexican deputation is expected in March, which will bring the result of the plebiscitum, after which the Emperor-elect will leave for Mexico. His Majesty the Emperor is said to have given his final consent to the proposal of the Archduke, who looks upon it as a purely personal affair, which places the empire under no obligation whatever.

The Count de Flahaut has entered upon negotiations with France and England and indirectly with President Lincoln, the issue of which is favorable to their cause.

LITIGATION PROJECTS

Judging by acts, not words, the Argentine authorities are not overzealous in seeking to people these boundless pampas with industrious Europeans. It is a mistake to suppose that contracts with some powerful party or commercial firm are the best means. We have repeatedly pointed out the expediency of inviting Irishmen hither, and facilitating their coming by paying, say half the passage money. It is however, still more important that the nature and wants of the country should be made known to intending immigrants.

Mr. Curran, of Dublin, to whom the Republic is indebted for having opened direct communication between Ireland and the River Plate, announces the formation of a London Company, of which he is to be the agent, and volunteers every information about Buenos Ayres and the splendid concessions to immigrants in Patagonia.' Now, with all due respect, our townsman knows as much about the Argentine provinces as we do, ourself, of Japan; and his encouragement for farmers to emigrate to Wexford or Kilkenny to Rio Negro, is rather hazar lous. Let President Mitre give a subsidy to this enterprising trader, and if Mr. Curran will put on a couple of vessels, and convey investors as bursaries, he will gather much benefit on the country.

Mr. Boyfuss left, last week, for Germany, having assured us that he expected soon to send out the first batch of German-Swiss colonists, for Santa Fé. Mr. Bensberger has also a contract for settling in Entre Rios, of which we may soon hear favourably.

Messrs. Werner have an enterprise for colonising Cordoba, but as yet we see in the dark as to its project of realisation. Mr. Wheelwright proposes, as a corollary to his great work of the Central Argentine Railway, a large scheme of immigration by steam, to advantage the at present useless lands along the line of the proposed railway: the deduction being he would attract the idle country into cotton fields, and as his word is the same as success, we confidently look for its fulfilment within two or three years.

Messrs. Aguirre and Murga have not abandoned their idea of getting out Basques, through an English house, to work up the resources of their great cattle farms in the South. The idea of Major Rickard and Dr Swan, to colonise the San Juan from the county Dublin, was utterly impracticable; nor do we augur better fortune for Dr. Considine's proposal to get cotton labourers to settle at Pueblo Lavalle, in Corrientes. There are several other projects, but we recapitulate the above to show that all our Government patronage is verbal, and we cannot show any tangible efforts to bring out European settlers, especially Irishmen. We are emigrating at 600 per diem, to develope the material interests of the River Plate.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Mersey arrived yesterday morning with the mails, and letters and papers were delivered at 2.45 p.m. Two supplements were distributed in the North about before noon, and in the South about 2 p.m.

The health of the city never was worse than at present. The doctors and apothecaries are making more money than even the ounce brokers. Fever, measles, and dysentery prevail to a frightful extent. The Municipal sanitary board is voted a humbug, in the fullest sense of the word : people say something must be done, but what something is, no one knows. Exhumation of medical men state, that the indiscreet use of fruit, coupled with the extraordinary heat at this time of the year, are the principal causes of all the sickness.

The rain that year defeats all our calculations. On last Sunday evening it rained in torrents in Moreno, Moron, and that neighbourhood, whilst not a drop fell in the city. So also for the last month past in the Banda Oriental, notwithstanding that in Entre Rios it is raining every week, on the opposite side of the Uruguay it has not rained for months.

The "Nacion Argentina" of yesterday contains a communication respecting some proposed plan for watering the city, which it is said our talented engineer, Mr. Bateman is personally interested in. As we are not in possession of the whole facts of the case, we can say but little on the matter, save that we believe the document in question seems to have been mislaid in the Government House.

Our colleagues seem resolved not to publish President Mitre's speech at the inauguration of the Buenos Ayres Great Southern Railway. We can give them no help, for they refused even to translate it from our columns than that it was too complimentary to Britishers. As one of the most influential and most respected English foreigners observed yesterday, had his Excellency spoken in such terms of Garibaldi as he did of Queen Victoria, our evil-doing colleagues would have published the speech to an extra edition, but because Gen. Mitre thought fit to pay a compliment to the country and to their employers, and most respectable portion of foreigners in the River Plate, we are all to be snubbed by our brethren collaborateurs.

We regret to learn that Mr. Baisley, the scrobat, foreying himself aggrieved by a caricature in the French paper, 'Gaucho' of the Editor of the Standard, most grievously. This outrage should not be tolerated, and we wonder the police have not arrested the offender. All public performers, however exalted in the arts of song or tight-rope, owe a debt of honour to the public and its representatives; and when any acrobat or comedian so far forgets himself, the sooner we expel him the better.

We refer to-morrow to charges on insolvency case of malicious burglary. It appears that the talented but rather impopular comedian, Mr. Charles Fulburn, of Constantinople, is at present residing at one of our fashionable suburbs, his house in town being left under the charge of a worthy old body but rather weak-headed. Returning home rather late the other evening, she thought she heard robbers at work. Under the large proffs of her master in the newspaper, and suspecting that some beggarly disbonest 'cocinha' had, instigated both by political and avaricious motives, sealed the walls of the back yard, jumped upon the hen-house, and thus effected an entrance, she considered it her bounden duty to call in the 'serenos' and neighbours, and have the house searched, but the cure seems to have been worse than the disease, as all the 'r raf of Calle San Martin, having the centre, run through the stately but deserted halls of the absent newspaper proprietor; the library which we suppose is one of the finest in the country, was crowded with black men, changadores and expectorating. At sixthirty. After a careful but tedious search it was discovered that the girl (as her master is too often) labouring under a strange infatuation, as not a soul could be found about the place 'barring the old ones etc." Unhappily, however, the fear is contagious in the human breast, and the young ladies in the adjoining house hearing the uproar, imagined that the would-be burglars had jumped into the back patio of their house. Here was a dilemma; the ladies rose, dressed themselves, and notwithstanding the vociferations of their mamma, refused to go to bed. Under the circumstances there was nothing for it save to search the house. Then began the second search; which ended like the first; the consequence was that the whole 'barrio' was awake all night, as none of the better portion of the neighbours could sleep. It is to be hoped that M. Cassat saith will soon hurry home before another such occurrence takes place.

Through the exertions of Mr. Bliss, co-editor with Mr. Williams, the 'River Plate Magazine' has gained an influx of 80 subscribers in Montevideo. This speaks well for the future of our colleague, and we wish it a like increase in Buenos Ayres.

Funeral of Archbishop Hughes

The New York papers state that as early as five o'clock in the morning of the day of the funeral, people began to assemble about St. Patrick's Cathedral. The ceremonial is described as having been most impressive. On a magnificent catafalque in the centre pisle lay the body of the archbishop, placed in an uncovered coffin of rosewood, lined with white satin, the head elevated upon cushions of purple silk. He was dressed in the archiepiscopal robes and insignia of office worn in life, the obsidible and the dalmatic being the under garments. Over these the alb, the purple sautan, and cincture of gold velvet embroidered in gold. Around his neck was the pallium, from which was suspended the pectoral cross of gold. His feet were clad in purple stockings, with shoes of purple velvet and gloves upon his hands of the same colour. He was upon his finger the same ring with which he was consecrated, 26 years exactly from the day upon which he was buried. On one side of the coffin was placed the crozier and on the other the episcopal cross. At the foot two crosses of evergreens and white japonicas. After the office for the dead, and grand Mass of requiem a funeral discourse was preached by one of the bishops. At the conclusion of this discourse the ceremonies of the absolution were performed, all the bishops present taking part, each in turn intoning the offices and passing round the body, sprinkling upon it holy water, and swinging over it the censers filled with burning incense. The remains were borne to the vault near the door by six priests of the diocese, preceded by the bishops, and followed by the family and relatives of the deceased, the priests chanting the Benedictus. The concluding prayers at the vault were read by Bishop Timon, and the body was again sprinkled with holy water and incensed, and lowered to the last resting-place. The Archbishop was buried on the 26th anniversary of his consecration as bishop. He died on the day of his patron saint, St. John, and had often expressed a wish to die on that day. The courts all adjourned for the day, out of respect to the memory, and the flags on the public buildings were displayed at half-mast. All the public offices were closed.

NORTHERN RAILWAY OF BUENOS AYRES COMPANY. The traffic returns of this company for the quarter commencing August 13th, and ending October 10th, upon 1¼ miles of railway, gave a weekly average per mile of £22; and for a period of eight weeks ending December 5th traffic upon 34 miles of railway open, with seven stations, averaged £31 per mile. Sefior Zimmerman, the resident agent, writes:—'You will also bear in mind that this is the result of winter traffic principally upon only a portion of the line, and under great disadvantages from want of locomotives and carriages sufficient for the service.' — The Railway News and JointStock Journal.

WOOL MARKET.

Liverpool, Feb. 6

The public wool sales were to-day brought to a close, having begun on the 20th ult. The quantity brought forward is little short of 38,000 bales, of which 20,000 were East India, which, with trifling exceptions, have all been sold, but the other kinds have mostly been withdrawn for want of competition; still prices are not 1d. per lb. lower, as anything of a suitable kind has realized fully former rates. Imports from Europe:—This week, 429 bales, previously, 12,375 bales—total, 12,700 bales.

ON 'CHANGE.

The news from Europe had a most injurious effect on paper currency to-day. Gold opened quoted weak at 29 30, and rose steadily to 29 40; just at the closing hour a sale was made at 29 38, at which price it closed, for the end of the month 158,000 pesos were sold, at 29 35; for Saturday 31,698 were sold at 29 0. Total cash sales 190,435. Total sales for the day 490,173.

It appears that the sudden rise in patacons to-day is owing to the very large amount exported—about 1½ millions—a fact that our readers should be aware of the fact that it is generally believed on the Bolsa that the recent fall in the price of patacons was caused by a powerful combination. Without any important change in our domestic politics, we think the conclusion of the Flushing Minister will commence the burning of the paper money forth-with and suddenly that in a few days paper suffers a most deplorable depreciation. There is no other way to prevent the amount for remittance now in the market than that the foreign merchants have taken fright at the news from Europe, and knowing that in the event of a peace that they will not be obliged to remit in specie, have given their orders. Indiscriminate takers at exchange are now beginning to be left rather nervous, as it is thought if a general war breaks out we shall have little coming back to us protested.

The imposition of the Collector of Customs, on unoffending importers, becomes intolerable. A marked instance has just occurred in a vessel, bringing cargo for Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, by accident brought one package here which should have been delivered at Montevideo. On seeking to return the package, the collector coolly informs the consignees that double duties must be paid on the goods. Here there was no attempt at, or possibility of, fraud, yet, with a Russian sort of despotism, an order to pay is issued. It is very degrading to a Government to descend to such means of obtaining money, and leads us to observe, that the worst tyranny is being practised against merchants.

The news from Europe, respecting our produce, is not to say the best. In wools, Cordovan is the only class much looked for. The last price for washed Cordovan, 12d.

SAVINGS BANK

BANK MAUA & C°

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —

BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great commercial cities of the Rio de Plata—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants, bankers or others of the Bank in which they place their most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co, in Montevideo, has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have no hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions. In the equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is safely guaranteed by the public by the credit derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles and at any directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.

p. p. Mauá & Co.

WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p$] per annum which is liquidated every six months.

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars current, or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

ENGLISH GRAMMAR SCHOOL,

CALLE LARGA DE BARRACAS

Doo—Mr. Pougeard, of the London University College.

This Establishment, which from its foundation has been patronised by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres, is an exact reproduction of an English School, where a sound commercial education combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, and based upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind.

An ever-watchful and constant supervision, and strict maintenance of order and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee that the morals and behaviour of the pupils are carefully attended to.

The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise the English, French and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Religious Instruction.

Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, Germans, Music and Dancing, are also taught by special masters.

The situation of the English Grammar School, in one of the most delightful parts of the Calle Large of Barracas, at the very gates of the city, is one of the most healthful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.
